Foreword

There is an ongoing debate on how best to coach the next generation of soccer players. This manual puts forward the case for the use of small-sided games.

In recent years, the use of the small-sided games coaching methodology has rapidly increased in popularity across Europe and North America. However, this approach is certainly not a new one.

It's widely held that the practice was first adopted as a structured coaching method by the Dutch Football Association back in the 1970s under the guidance of Rinus Michels, the inspiration behind what became known as Total Football.

The Dutch recognised the decline in street football and the damaging effect that would have on developing players in future generations. They formulated the 4v4 method as a response and it became widely known as "the Dutch way".

However, in a chat with Tony Carr, Director of the West Ham United Academy (and editor of Soccer Coach Smart Sessions), he described how when he was a player at West Ham in the 1960s the great Ron Greenwood used small-sided games at the heart of his coaching philosophy. Greenwood produced players of the calibre of Bobby Moore, Geoff Hurst and Martin Peters. Tony is responsible for some of the best players in the modern English game - Cole, Ferdinand, Carrick, DeFoe, Lampard, Terry etc.

What are the key benefits of small-sided games?

- No coaching, the game is the teacher
- Simple to set up
- Simplifies the choices in possession (pass, dribble, shoot)
- More player participation
- Different games bring different problems to solve and skills to use
- More touches of the ball
- More passes attempted
- More 1v1s attempted
- More goals scored
- When used, goalkeeper participation is greatly increased
- No referees required
- No results recorded
- No positions, just players
- The players take responsibility

For this manual I have designed 64 different small-sided games. The games are tried and tested with both grassroots beginners and top youth players in professional academies. The games are designed to stimulate the players and lead them down a path of learning. This manual brings the 4v4 concept into the new era and will develop your players in a fun, player-led environment.

I really hope that you and your players enjoy these games.

With best wishes to you and your team

Contents

The games are arranged into three categories: simple, intermediate and advanced. These categories represent the degree of difficulty for your players. They are not specifically tied to age-groups, but they are intended to show that young players will find it easier to understand and play simple games. As your players become older or more experienced they can try the intermediate games, eventually moving on to the advanced games. It's your judgement as coach as to which games your players are going to benefit from, but we hope that these categories help to provide a progression as they grow in age and confidence.

2

2. While you're trying to score, the opposition is doing exactly the same.

3

3. Now it's just one ball in play. Who can win possession and score?

The diagrams illustrate the Multi-Ball Game in three stages. Diagram 1 shows the initial setup on a rectangular pitch with two goals. Two teams of four players each are positioned on the pitch, and two keepers are in their respective goals. A key indicates that dashed arrows represent ball movement, solid arrows represent player movement, and a solid arrow pointing to a goal represents a shot on goal. Diagram 2 shows the game in progress with multiple balls in play. Diagram 3 shows a single ball in play, with players from both teams competing for possession.

Multi-Goal Game

Set up

- Mark out a circle of about 25 yards diameter using cones or markers
- Two teams of four players
- Four mini goals placed as in the diagram
- About 12 balls in the centre of the pitch
- One team work as the attackers
- One team work as the defenders

Rules

- To start, the attacking players have a ball each and must try to score in the mini goals.
- Once the ball has been played the attacking player must quickly race back to the centre and retrieve a new ball and attack again.
- The game will start with four 1v1 situations but as the number of balls decreases it will become a variety of 2v1, 2v2, 3v2's etc.
- When the last ball has been played, the coach counts the goals scored and the roles are reversed for the next game.

1. The game starts with four 1v1 situations.

2. The players must try to score and quickly retrieve another ball and try again.

3. When most of the balls are gone the game changes to 3v4, then 2v4, then 1v4.

Centre Circle Game

Set up

- This game is played in a large centre circle
- Two teams of four players
- Two mini target goals, one at each end of the centre circle
- Each team has two players on the pitch and two players on the outside (in the attacking half)
- The players on the outside can move up and down their side and look to receive a pass

- The team in possession must attempt to score in the mini goal.
- They can use their team mates outside the circle to help build a passing move.
- The outside players are only allowed to use one touch.

- Two teams of four players
- Two keepers
- No offside
- Two goals placed at opposite corners of the pitch
- If the ball leaves play, pass a new ball onto the pitch

Rules

- This practice is played as a normal 5-a-side game.
- Because of the angled goals, your players will start to realize where they need to pressure and force their opponents when they are defending.
- When attacking the team in possession should look to switch the ball quickly or to use the wings and get into good crossing positions.

KEY
PLAYER MOVEMENT
----->

1

1. Play a normal 5-a-side game but with angled goals.

2

2. Can the defenders force the team in possession away from their goal?

- The crossing players are allowed 3 touches (control, dribble, pass/cross).
- The game is played for a set period of time.
- The teams are rotated for the next match.

KEY

BALL MOVEMENT → SHOT ON GOAL → PLAYER MOVEMENT →

1

Play a normal 4v4 game, but use the third team of 4 as crossers and goalkeepers.

2

2. The team in possession can use the players off the pitch for extra width.

3

3. Here, the extra player gets a cross in to create a goal-scoring opportunity.

3 Zone Playmaker Game

Set up

- Pitch size: 40 x 30 yards, divided into three narrow strips
- Each zone has a target goal at each end
- Two teams of four players

- One player from each team is the “playmaker” (P in the diagrams).
- Possession starts with the playmaker and the teams take it in turns to start a move.
- The playmaker can play in any zone and move freely between them
- The other players must remain in their starting zones.
- The playmaker’s job is to pass to a team mate and support them, creating a 2v1 situation.
- The opponents’ playmaker can support their defender to create a 2v2 situation.
- The game is played for four periods of 2 minutes.
- Each player has one period as the playmaker.

KEY

BALL MOVEMENT → (dashed arrow)

PLAYER MOVEMENT → (solid arrow)

1

1. This is a game of 1v1s with a “floating” playmaker.

- Two keepers
- If the ball leaves play, feed a new ball in immediately.

Rules

- Start the game with four teams of two playing with one ball. Players can score in any goal.
- On your call, two teams immediately join together and the game continues in a 4v4 situation. An example of a call would be “white and stripes”. Both these teams would now join forces to play against black and hoops.
- You can also overload the game against one team, for example “white, stripes and hoops” would play against black.
- Again, the teams can score in either goal.

“This game attempts to recreate a school playground atmosphere where all players are actively involved in both attack and defence.”

1. Four teams of two battle it out to score in either goal.

2. On your call, two teams merge to create 4v4.

3. How about 6 v 2 on your call? Can they score from the overload?

Two In and Two Wide

Set up

- Pitch size: 30 x 20 yards (minimum) up to 40 x 25 yards (maximum)
- Two teams of four players, two players from each team starting on the pitch
- Two keepers

Rules

- The central players are involved in a 2v2 game but can use their wide players to their advantage when in possession of the ball.
- The wide players might make a return pass or maybe cross for an attempt on goal.
- The wide players can only use two touches on the ball.
- The game is played for a set time period before the wide and central players switch positions.
- This game can be progressed to a continuous game in which the central player that passes out to a wide player must go out and change positions with them. The wide player now dribbles onto the main pitch.

1. Start with 2v2. The team in possession can look to use their wide players to their advantage.

2. Here, the wide white player is used to cross for a scoring opportunity.

3. Turn it into a continuous 2v2 by getting the players on and off the pitch to swap roles.

Middle or Wide Advantage

Set up

- Pitch size: 30 x 20 yards (minimum) up to 40 x 25 yards (maximum)
- Two keepers
- Two teams of four players
